

Dear Studio Director and Dancers,

You are cordially invited to the American-Ukraine Summer Ballet Camp July 11 - 29, 2016 hosted by Viktor Yeliohin International Ballet Academy!

This summer dance camp offers a variety of classes in ballet as well as associated dance techniques to encourage program participants to deepen and to expand their expertise. The program is designed for ages 10-20. Dancers will learn the Vaganova Syllabus style of dance, and will enjoy three full weeks of Ballet, Pointe, Variation, Character, Jazz, Modern, Floor Barre, and Yoga from world renowned dancers and instructors from the Ukraine, Russia, and the United States. The program will also feature the students in a Final Performance on Friday, July 29, 2016 at 7 pm.

Hosted in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, students will get to experience the perks of the oldest inland city in the United States; a safe environment, a love for all art forms, and a great community. Students have the option to commute or reside at the American-Ukraine Summer Ballet Camp. Residing students are housed in a modern, air-conditioned residence hall and all their meals are provided.

To register please fill out and mail your registration form with your check of $35 dollars to...

OUR SUMMER CAMP FACULTY

VIKTOR YELIOHIN (Director) is a former soloist with the Donetsk Ballet of Ukraine. He is a Ballet master, Professor of Choreography and Studio Director with a career spanning more than 20 years. He holds the degree of Professor of Choreography from the prestigious Ukrainian Academy of Dance in Kiev, Ukraine, which was presented in May, 1995. Mr.

Yeliohin's students have participated in Youth America Grand Prix dance competition and he has former students dancing in companies such as the Joffrey Ballet, Martha Graham, and other regional ballet companies. Students of Mr. Yeliohin have gone on to train at the Kirov Academy in Washington, D.C. and the Bolshoi Ballet School in Moscow, Russia. His students have also danced with international companies including the Donetsk Ballet of Ukraine. The dream of owning his own studio became a reality in 2010, when the Viktor Yeliohin International Ballet Academy opened in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Viktor brings to his studio a passion for the beauty of dance and a compassion for and belief in every child's potential. At VYIBA the students will find a ballet master dedicated to education and enjoyment of the art of dance, while providing a safe and welcoming atmosphere for all dancers, regardless of one's skill level.

VADIM PISAREV hailed as an international superstar, Pisarev's technical brilliance has created a sensation throughout the Soviet Union and Europe. Trained at the Kiev Choreographic School under the great teacher Dinisienko, Pisarev won many honors. Both Pisarev and his wife Inna Dorofeyeva were given the title of the People's Artist of the Ukraine, an honorary and the highest title awarding to outstanding performing artists whose merits are exceptional in the sphere of the development of the performing arts. In 1995 he received the UNESCO prize, "The best dancer in the world." Pisarev was named Male Dancer of the Year (1990). He was awarded prizes in both Paris and Helsinki, as well as the Gold Medal for the International Ballet Competition in Jackson, Mississippi in 1986, and in 1985 Pisarev received the same Gold Medal for the International Ballet Competition in Moscow. Pisarev has traveled and performed often with the Bolshoi Ballet Gala Concerts, Olympic Games, and Festivals of International Stars. Pisarev was formerly a Principal Dancer of the Deutsche Oper Am Rhein in Dusseldorf and Duisberg, Germany and is currently the Artistic Director and a Premier Dansuer Emeritus of the Donetsk Opera and Ballet Theatre, he travels extensively, performing throughout the world. In reflection on the artistic world, his contribution and dedication to the arts Pisarev states, "I am happy to live on this planet and to have an opportunity to hear the music of prominent composers; Tchaikovsky, Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Schubert, Maler, Prokofiev, I am also happy to express my feelings, my thoughts through art to which I have devoted all my life, and it is classical ballet! I would like to emphasize the words by Maurice Bejart applying to each of you: 'Planets dance, and you?'"

INNA DOROFEYeva A native of the Chuguyev in Ukraine, Ms. Dorofeyeva studied at the Kiev Choreographic School under the tutelage of Varvar P. Mey. Formally a Principal Dancer of the Deutsche Oper Am Rhein in Dusseldorf and Duisberg, Germany and Prima Ballerina of the Donetsk Opera and Ballet Theatre, she quickly gained international attention. Dorofeyeva has performed the lead roles in Don Quixote and Sleeping Beauty. She was awarded the Gold Medal in the first Ukraine Ballet competition, and has toured throughout France, Poland, South Korea, India,

Sweden, China, Japan and the USA. In her 1990 tour of the United States she was called a "patrician classical stylist" by the Washington Post and "a dream" by the New York Times. Dorofeyeva currently is a Premier Dansuer Emeritus of the Donetsk Opera and Ballet Theatre. Both Dorofeyeva and her husband Vadim Pisarev were given the title of the People's Artist of the Ukraine, an honorary and the highest title awarding to outstanding performing artists whose merits are exceptional in the sphere of the development of the performing arts.

CODY SMITH has been dancing professionally for 15 years. Locally, he has performed for the Fulton Theatre, American Music Theatre, and at EPAC. In New York, he has been a member of the ensemble of the Radio City Christmas Spectacular for the past 11 years. He has also assisted in numerous Broadway workshops and Off-Broadway productions, as well as, acting as Dance Captain in many regional and touring companies. Cody also directs and choreographs locally. He is the current director of Hempfield

Dance Theatre program; he has choreographed dozens of shows for EPAC, as well as for the Hempfield Music program, Ephrata HS, Cedar Crest Company, and Rev9 Dance Company. He enjoys teaching Jazz and Musical Theatre and looks forward to working with a variety of local studios.
